

AILG Elected Members Module 2 Training May 2018 – ‘Councillors & Community Safety’ – A briefing on Joint Policing Committees and Presentation on “Use your Brain Not your Fists” Project (Leitrim Co. Co./Comhairle na nOg)

Tuesday 15/05/2018 for the Dublin, Eastern & Midlands Region

Lucan Spa Hotel, Lucan – The Lucan Spa Hotel is very assessable, located right on the N4 motorway with ample free parking.

9.30am	Registration, Introduction & Overview (Tea/Coffee Available)
9.30am – 10.30am	Councillor’s & Joint Policing Committees The AILG’s May training will focus on the work of the Joint Policing Committees as part of the local government interaction with the community. Established under 2005 legislation the Joint Policing Committees have created a vital link between An Garda Síochana and the local authority and in particular local authority members Speakers: Cllr. Deidre O’Donovan, Chair of South Dublin County Council JPC will present on the experience of a busy JPC which has delivered a multitude of innovative projects out to many sections of the community. Cllr. Guss O’Connell, Peace Commissioner, will speak on the role of the Peace Commissioner, an appointment held by many councillors.
10.30am – 11.30am	Tea/Coffee Break
11.30am – 11.45am	“Use your Brains not your Fists” Presentation by Leitrim County Council, working with Leitrim Comhairle na nOg, entitled "Use your Brain, not your fist" - the young people working Leitrim County Council's Community & Voluntary section are developing a programme highlighting ways of staying safe for young people in the social space. Their project has been showcased on RTE's "Tonight with Claire Byrne" programme and they are working to share their strategies with other counties. Speaker: Ms. Suzanne Duffy, Leitrim County Council.
11.45am – 12.30pm	Questions & Answers
12.30pm	Lunch